

Group Dining Options when Visiting New Lanark World Heritage Site

New Lanark Mill Café - Contact 01555 661 345

The Mill Café offers group dining throughout the year at New Lanark Visitor Centre. You can select one of the choices below for your group should you wish to dine together. Please note that pre-booking and a pre order is essential with final numbers and details of any special dietary / allergen requirements provided 7 days in advance.

Alternatively, you may simply want your group to dine at their own leisure. If this is the case there is a good selection of light meals, snacks, soup of the day, home baking, baked potatoes, Panini's, sandwiches, hot meals and hot & cold drinks available at our self-service counter. Should you wish your group to go through the self-service counter together, please let us know in advance so that we can allocate you a specific time.
